Now what?

We will discuss your application during the next monthly assembly, which takes place on the second Sunday of every month. If approved, you will receive an e-mail with all the relevant information. Please keep this e-mail for later reference since it contains your FAU login and access information so you can use our digital infrastructure, as well as our organization chart, statutes and recent reports. You will also be assigned a local group that communicates via mailing list and/or messenger, which will be your first point of contact, where you can meet your fellow members and get answers to all of your questions. Additionally, there is a one hour workshop for new members right before each monthly assembly to help you find your way around the syndicate. Dates for meetings and informal get-togethers will be communicated via mailing list as well as on our website dd.fau.org.

By signing this application you agree to the usage of your data for the purpose of member administration. The administrator may pass on your data to members or to the coordinator of your local group, in order for them to contact you. The data is only processed for the purposes of union organization. When your membership expires, your data will be deleted from the member administration database. All data is stored and passed on in encrypted form.
